An appropriation was passed by the Board of Supervisors yesterday morning for rebuilding a portion of the retaining wall of the causeway of the Van Cortland bridge, on the Croton River. Supervisor Ruscoe's resolution opposing lexislation to exempt mortgages from taxation came up for consideration and was made a special order for Wednesday, February 8.

A reception will be held by the Young Men's Christian Association at their rooms, in Railroadeve, this evening.

Although the contract was given out over a year ago, the work of remodelling the County Jail is not yet finished. At last accounts it was stated that a portion of the steel cage which incloses the cells was structurally weak, as admitted by a representative of the contractors, who said a smart man could force his way out in less than two hours and as exemplified by the escape of two boys confined in the jail several weeks ago. The weak spect is to be strengthened it is said, at an additional cost of more than $2,000.

MOUNT VERNON.

The Aldermen, at their meeting on Tuesday night, received a communication from the Fire Commissioners asking for an appropriation of $50-000 for the purchase of fire houses now rented in the city and for additional apparatus. By acquiring the buildings the Commissioners state that the city will save much money. They also recom mended an ordinance commanding owners of tenemended an ordinance commanding owners of tenement-houses to place fire-escapes on the fronts of buildings, as well as on the rear, as the ordinance reads now. The communication was referred. A letter was read from the Standard Voting Company offering to exhibit its machines in this city and to allow the city $200 each for its ten Myer's hallot machines, providing new ones are purchased.
Referred. Another application from the Union Railroad Company for routes in Chester Hill was presented, and a hearing will be given on the night of February 8.

The installation of officers of Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arcanum, will take place this evening

FATHER DOYLE TO BISHOP POTTER.

RESENTS THE REMARK THAT THE SALOON IS THE POOR MAN'S CLUB, BUT AP-PROVES OF SUBSTITUTES.

Bishop Potter's recent utterance about the saloon being the poor man's club was sharply criticized last night by the Rev. Alexander P. Doyle, of the Paulist Fathers, in his temperance sermon to men in connection with the great mission that is being held this week in the Church of St. Paul the

There is a good deal of maudlin talk these days," said Father Doyle in his sermon at last night's service, "about the saloon being the 'poor man's club." In the name of the poor but honest workingman of this city, I resent the imputation that the saloon is his club. The saloon has been a club, indeed, to beat the brains from too many a poor man's head in intoxication, a club to knock from his pockets the money that should clothe his family and feed his children, a club to strike him down again when he has got on his feet toward honest and independent manhood. There may be laid at the doors of the saloons of this city too much of the degradation of manhood, the prostitution of womanhood and the damnation of childhood for a dignified Churchman to stand forth and apologize for the existence of them or to give them | erick K. Horn, Benjamin Emanuel, Louis Catstagcountenance in their law-defying ways. There is not a doubt that the saloon as it exists here and now in this city is responsible in a great measure for the destruction of civic honor as well as for the debasement of home and virtue. What-ever the reason may be, I know that never has such a viciousness grouped itself about the saloons sefore as now surrounds them in this city. At any by all-powerful laws, but the utter disregard for decency that is exhibited by the saloon element in this city to-day is bearing dreadful fruits in the debasement of the most sacred relations of life the debasement of the most sacred relations of life. The vilest places are flourishing right under the eyes of the police, and if they do not know of them it is because they are so derelict in their duty as to overlook what ordinary citizens see without half, trying. Not a hundred miles from where I stand there are criminal violations of the laws and debaucheries which I dare not name in this sacred place, which a vigilant official might easily suppress. It is a wise prudence that finds if it can some substitute for the saloon. During the last year this parish has spent $20,000 in erecting its settlement-house in order to provide a saloon substitute.

"No decent man is a hanger-out at the saloon. While the saloon exists by law, the best that can be said of it is that it is a most dangerous business both for the saloonkeeper and the community at large. It should be restrained and watched and kept down by the strong arm of the law. If by political influence or official corruption it is allowed to flourish as it does to-day it will destroy the very foundations of our Commonwealth and drag our foundations of our Commonwealth and drag our blook of the common of the c

FLOUR AUCTIONED AT EXCHANGE. An innovation in the flour trade was made on Tuesday, when an auction sale of flour was held on the floor of the Produce Exchange. These sales are to be held semi-weekly, the flour being sold for cash, in lots of twenty barrels and upward. It is intended by these auction sales to enable the small dealers and the bakers to buy their flour without recourse to the "jobbers."

EXCHANGE'S NEW PROPERTY.

MEMBERS RATIFY THE PURCHASE OF NO. 8 BROAD-ST. BY THE GOVERN-ING COMMITTEE.

The members of the Stock Exchange, at a special meeting held yesterday afternoon, ratified the action of the Governing Committee in purchasing the building No. 8 Broad-st., adjoining the Stock Exchange on the north, for $425,000. The property was owned by the Swan estate, and the negotiations were conducted by the Governing Committee directly with the owners, no real estate brokerage house figuring in the transaction. These negotiations had been in progress, it was learned yesterday, ever since the Exchange acquired the Western Union Building, Nos. 16 and 18 Broad-st., last fall

No. 8 Broad-st, is a six-story structure, mainly occupied by brokers' offices. The Anglo-American Telegraph Company has the ground floor, and in the basement is a noted cafe. The building stands on a lot having a frontage in Broad-st. of 21 feet 8 inches, a depth of 73 feet 8 inches, and a width in the rear of 27 feet 4 inches. The line on the south, next to the Stock Exchange, runs straight back for the entire depth. On the north it extends 30 feet 8 inches, then at right angles 5 feet 8 inches, then again at right angles 43 feet to the rear line. The floor of the Stock Exchange is at present the shape of an enormous T. The floor pace representing the stem of the letter rups from Bread-st. through to New-st. The frontage of the space representing the stem of the letter runs from Bread-st. through to New-st. The frontage of the Exchange property in New-st. is approximately equal to the width of this main stem plus the width of both the Western Union building and the Swan building, both of which ran back to the respective wings of the Exchange floor. So by tearing out the side and rear partitions between the Exchange and the lower floors of these two structures, respectively, the Stock Exchange will have a trading floor which will be as wide on the Broadst side as on the New-st, side, and will be a great improvement over the present floor; both in largely increased superficial area and in the doing away with the present recesses.

The Stock Exchange will not be able to get full possession of its new property for some time. Some of the leases expire in May of this year, but one lesse runs until 1900 and another to 1902. The building on the south of the Steck Exchange, bought by the Governing Committee on October 18, 1898, is leased by the Western Union Telegraph Company, which is entitled to possession under its ground lease until 1863. This property, which was owned jointly by the éstate of Abraham Bininger and the estate of Julia Redell, was secured for 8825,000 cash. The Swan estate property is much smaller in dimensions, and the $425,000 paid for it is said to represent about the same sum a square foot of land as was given for the so-called Western Union preperty. Two buildings now stand between the Stock Exchange property and Wall-st.—the Wirks Building, at Wall and Broad sts. It is not likely that the Exchange will desire to purchase either of them. There is now a corridor from the Exchange floor to Wall-st, bounded by these two buildings; and the floor space when the present Board room and the two newly bought buildings are thrown into one great hall will probably meet the requirements of the brokers for a great many years to come.

TRANSPORTATION CLUB'S DINNER.

The Transportation Club will give a dinner this evening at its home, at Forty-second-st, and Mad-ison-ave. Among those who are expected to speak are General Wallace F. Randolph, Chaplain Harry P. Jones, of the battle-ship Texas; General Alexander S. Webb and Father Childwick, who was chaplain of the battle-ship Maine when it was destroyed.

St. John Roosa; vice-president, Dr. Andrew H. Smith; treas-urer, Dr. Bache McE. Emmet, and secretary, Dr. George N. Miller. Dr. George N. Miller was also elected assistant treasurer.

BELATED STEAMERS REACH PORT.

Several steamers which have been delayed by the stormy weather prevailing on the Atlantic arrived port yesterday. They were the State of Ne brasks from Glasgow, the Island from Christianbraska from Glasgow, the Island from Christian-sand, the Friesland from Antwerp and the Phos-nicia from Hamburg. This leaves practically only one overdue steamer unaccounted for, the Strath-alriy, which sailed from London on December 31. As she is one of the slower boats no alarm would be felt as to her for several days yet, providing the heavy weather and the delays of other steamers were taken into consideration. All the belated vessels coming in yesterday reported severe storms at sea, but none of them suffered any serious dam-age.
